

Family Histories and Family Myths

The May meeting started with notices about a forthcoming Family Search Webinar on 17th May, and new free online resource UKBMD, with useful Tutorial information.

Sue Massey circulated a List of Wyre Forest WW1 Memorials she had prepared for the Group Project and we discussed existing projects we can access and might contribute to.

A working party was formed to meet, set out the steps and report back with instructions at the next meeting.

On Family Myths and Stories, among others, there were contributions from Linda Roberts on Archie Heron, her significant Irish Nationalist patriot relative who had been blanked out by his horrified Protestant N.I. Irish family.

Group members were able to help when Sue Clarke presented her 'mistaken identity' Brick Wall, James Bevan, Bewdley war hero or not, and Spanish immigrant using English surname Horn, which could have been a direct translation from Spanish "cuerno".
